

Know this: that all who seek entrance to the ceremony of Peace must carry the mark upon their hand, encircle their leftmost finger, and wear the colors of the Heavens above, blue below and white on high. They shall carry in their hand that which is round and be prepared to leave it upon entrance as the cost of entering into the sanctum.

And that each fellowship that wishes to join with other fellowships in the ceremony must bring with them an offering of nature's bounty, and that it need not be enough to feed the multitudes, for we shall be nourished in better ways, but enough that no less than three might partake and celebrate that which the Earth has provided.

And that on that day, this fellowship shall approach the sanctum and be admitted only if they carry with them a vessel of water most pure.

To commit to the ceremony of Peace, all in attendance shall raise their voices in song to O Sacred Mother. Then the Two will speak and those gathered will respond -

Power of Light, attend the shrine of my soul. Quicken my tongue that I may work this rite in beauty and in truth.

I have come to do as our wise ancestors did, to make offering to you,
Blessed Mother, and to know of your sacred ways.

In the deeps flow the waters of wisdom.

Sacred well, flow within me.

I kindle the sacred fire in wisdom, love and power.

Sacred fire, burn within me.

Your bountiful gifts bless us daily.

Sacred Earth, dwell within me.

Each fellowship in attendance will be called in turn to present its offering. Then the Two will pray, and all those in attendance will celebrate, for in five minutes time. So long as the balance, count, and arrangement of the sacred forms is maintained, the ceremony will succeed and the world will begin to heal.

Forewarned and forearmed.
