Re: General Reminder

Hello all,

It was brought to my attention in the Discord chat today that some of you are alarmingly unaware of the very real national security threat that has necessitated this project. Please take a moment to re-read the briefing files the FBI gave you in January. Secretary Juarez's liaison, Griffin Townsend, is additionally available to answer questions.

Given the severity of the situation, it is extremely important that you read all of my emails thoroughly and keep up-to-date on applicable policies and procedures. Here are a few links for your reference:

On an even more serious note, the FBI has uncovered a sequel to 2013's "fluffy unicorn challenge" that began last Wednesday in an undisclosed location in the Midwest. The new phenomenon is called the "sneaky snake challenge," wherein participants dig up dirt on unpopular politicians and share it live on Twitch. This is textbook Cryptic Collegium.

Keep an eye out for more updates.

Sincerely,
